

LOCAL DOTS

Solicitor J. K. Henry has been here in attendance upon court the past few days.

The Bell Town school will open next Monday. Let all pupils be present that day.

Remember the musical entertainment this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waddy R. Thomson, for the benefit of the First Baptist church organ fund.

The Pleasant Hill school, with Miss Maggie Tompkins as teacher, will open Monday, the 26th, in the new building. All patrons of this school will please see that the children are ready to start in promptly from the first.

A special meeting of the local council of the Boy Scouts of America is called for Monday night at the court house at 7:30 for the purpose of perfecting the organization. L. C. Lazenby, President.

Rev. S. R. Brock has succeeded Rev. J. F. Hammond as pastor of the Second Baptist church. Mr. Brock is also pastor of the Ebenezer church. He is an earnest, faithful worker and has accomplished much good in his labors in and around Lancaster.

A meeting of the teachers of the county on Saturday, October 31, is requested by Chalmers E. Wessinger, president, for the purpose of reorganization of the "Teachers' Association" and "Rural School Improvement Association." The program for this meeting will be announced later.

LIVING AT HOME.

Good Example of Mr. John F. Clyburn.

Mr. John F. Clyburn, a Lancaster man, who has met with signal success in his adopted home at Hartsville, is giving an object lesson to farmers as to how they can live at home. The following is taken from The Columbia Record of Wednesday:

"Hartsville, Oct. 21.—In this time of almost universal complaint of 'hard times' it behooves us to learn a lesson of diversified gardening. Hartsville has a man who is wide awake to the possibilities of raising vegetables all the year round, J. F. Clyburn, the manager of the dry goods department of J. L. Coker & Co.'s department store.

Mr. Clyburn now has in his garden and truck patch, string beans, lima beans, tomatoes, okra, parsley, mustard, egg-plants, radishes, strawberries, squash, sweet potatoes, and pepper. These varieties are being gathered daily.

"Mr. Clyburn keeps his strawberry plants in good condition by a system of irrigation when the rain falls to come when needed. Kale, lettuce and spinach are also among the varieties growing which will soon be ready for use, and as the different varieties exhaust they are replaced by other things planted to the land."

THURSDAY IS LANCASTER DAY.

Secretary Ellison Tells Plans of Boosters.

Next Thursday, October 29th, is "Lancaster County Day" at the state fair. Remember the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce has arranged with the Southern for a "special train" to be used by the Lancaster county people only. The special will leave Lancaster promptly at 7 a. m. and the round trip fare will be only the small amount of $2.45, or $2.95 including ticket to fair grounds. The special will only stop at Heath Springs and Kershaw. It will leave Columbia (Union station) at 9:30 p. m., stopping only at Kershaw and Heath Springs on return trip.

Men, women and children are cordially invited to go along and help "boost" Lancaster. A day of fun—a day of pleasure—a day of recreation and a day spent where you will not forever hear "war and hard times" talked.

Remember the day—Thursday, October 29th—the hour of leaving 7 a. m. the round trip fare only $2.45. The object of the trip, to convince the people throughout the state at large that Lancaster does not do things merely by halves. So begin planning today for this most glorious boosting trip. Tell your friends about it and urge them to go also. Phone 142, Chamber of Commerce, for further information desired.

MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT.

Robert M. Caskey Seriously Injured in Louisiana.

Mr. Robert M. Caskey, formerly of this county, but who has been living in Arkansas for a number of years, was hurt quite seriously in a motorcycle accident in Louisiana on October 13. He ran over a hog in a road near Alexander, Louisiana, and was thrown from his motorcycle, sustaining serious injuries, which rendered him unconscious. He was taken at once to Little Rock, Ark., where every effort is being made to restore him. His brother, Magistrate John L. Caskey, tells us that at the last report of his condition the patient is still unconscious.

Mr. Caskey has been employed as a lineman of the Missouri, Ohio & Pacific Railway. He has numbers of friends and relatives throughout this section, who hope to hear soon a more favorable report of his condition.

COBB-ELLIOTT.

Wedding at Ware Shoals Next Week.

The following invitations received in Lancaster recently are of decided local interest:

On the evening of Wednesday, October the twenty-eighth. Nineteen hundred and fourteen at seven-thirty o'clock Smith Memorial Church, Ware Shoals, South Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll Cobb will give in marriage their daughter Lila Perrin to Mr. J. Eugene Elliott. The honor of your presence is requested.

Reception immediately after ceremony at home.

Mr. Elliott is the only son of Mr. J. C. Elliott of this place and was born and reared in Lancaster, where he is quite popular. He is a young man of business ability and integrity. Miss Cobb is a pretty and attractive young woman, whose father is a well-known manufacturer of Ware Shoals.

Social News

A recent event which was an occasion of delight to their young friends, was the joint birthday party of little Misses Doris and Sarah Hilton, daughters of County Treasurer and Mrs. T. L. Hilton. Many of the little friends were present and spent a happy afternoon playing outdoor games. During the afternoon Mrs. Hilton served dainty refreshments. A number of pretty gifts were left by the guests as reminders of a memorable day.

USHER-TAYLOR.

Pretty Home Wedding in the Dixie Section.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Usher in the Dixie section, was the scene of a large gathering last Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Reulah Mae Usher, became the bride of Mr. Hugh Leslie Taylor of Buford. The parlor where the ceremony was performed was very elaborately decorated in white, asters intertwined with ivy and white chrysanthemums, and just beneath the arch a large white wedding bell was suspended. At 4 o'clock, the appointed hour, the parlor door was opened and the guests were ushered in by Miss Lillie Usher, sister of the bride. Then a lovely solo, "When the Dew-drops are on the Rose," was sweetly sung by Mr. G. F. Taylor, uncle of the groom. After the solo, the march "Hearts and Flowers," was beautifully played by Mrs. G. F. Taylor, aunt of the groom. During the march four very sweet little flower girls with baskets of bride's roses and ferns, entered the room, followed by the bride and groom, the bride carrying an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses and Maiden's hair ferns. Rev. B. F. Carson, pastor of the bride and groom, in an impressive ceremony, pronounced the words which made the happy couple man and wife. Soon after the ceremony delicious refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Usher, brother and sister of the bride, and Miss Levia Taylor, sister of the groom. The bride was very becomingly dressed in white Swiss, trimmed in lace, beads and buttons. The only ornaments she wore were a ring and bracelet, which were given her by the groom on their wedding day.

The groom was strikingly handsome in a blue serge suit. The bride's going-away suit of blue with accessories to match, was very pretty. Little Misses Etta and Virginia Taylor, two of the little flower girls and sisters of the groom, were daintily dressed in white lingerie with blue sashes and aigrettes. The other little girls, Misses Nannie Snipes and Guy Usher, were dressed in white embroidered with blue sashes and aigrettes.

The guests were met by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Usher and the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Usher. After the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends, they left for Rock Hill, Charlotte and other points, where they will spend their honeymoon, and then return to their future home in Buford, where their friends are glad to have them remain, for they are of such splendid type that it would be a great loss to have them go elsewhere. The pretty souvenirs were distributed by little Miss Etta Taylor.

Among the guests from a distance were: Mrs. W. T. Funderburk of Rock Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Starnes, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Starnes of Unity and Mr. Roscoe Lingle of Lancaster. The many and useful presents, consisting of cut glass, china, silver and linen, attested the popularity of this young couple.

Mr. Cunningham Selling Alfalfa to Local Merchants.

Mr. J. Roy Cunningham is busily engaged in hauling to town many bales of alfalfa, which he raised on his farm and is now selling to local merchants. There is a market for alfalfa, as for everything grown on the farm except cotton, and the example set by Mr. Cunningham might with profit be followed by other Lancaster county farmers.

SPARKS CIRCUS MONDAY.

Seals Walk Ropes and Elephants Play Baseball.

The Sparks Shows, which exhibit here Monday, October 26, will present this year what is claimed to be the most wonderful herd of performing Seals ever exhibited to Lancaster county circus going folks. They walk tight ropes, balancing an umbrella on the tips of their noses. They ride galloping horses while juggling rubber balls and do other stunts equally amazing.

The Seal, judged by the expression in his expressionless eyes, has no brain worth speaking about, and yet they are wonderful imitators and can learn many tricks requiring dexterity with less effort than can members of the human family.

Another very interesting thing about these Sea Lions is their voracious appetite. They have to be fed almost entirely on live fish, which are shipped from either the Atlantic or Pacific ocean, and hence in these times of the high cost of living this performance must come at a pretty high figure.

We are also told that real live elephants will play baseball to the delight of the kids, as well as the grown-ups, for as you know the father is necessarily called upon to take the "children out to see the animals." Of course having this arduous labor to perform for the educational knowledge it imparts to his offspring, he cannot be censured for enjoying himself to the fullest extent, under the imposed conditions. Let us not waste too much sympathy on him, however. For what purpose are fathers except to play the part of martyrs to the rising generation?

Let the fathers rage for the kids will surely rejoice.

SUFFERS BROKEN ARM.

Willie Marion Reed Thrown From Horse.

While riding a spirited horse late last Friday afternoon, Master Willie Marion Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reed, was thrown off and suffered a broken elbow joint. The arm was set by Dr. W. F. Laney, who suggested that as it was broken at the joint, it might be well to have an X-ray examination made. Mr. Reed accordingly took the child to Rock Hill, where Dr. Pennell made such examination and assured him that the bone had been properly set. By exercising the arm as soon as the bones knit, it is hoped that the limb will not become stiff and that Willie Marion will soon suffer no discomfort from the accident.

Derailment on L. & C.

The westbound Lancaster & Chester train met with a slight accident Tuesday afternoon about eight and a half miles from Chester, which resulted in the tearing up of the track for a distance of several yards and the derailment of three freight cars. After a little delay a freight car took the passengers to Chester. Nobody was hurt and the damage was quickly repaired.

Apply Sloan's Freely for Lumbago. Your attacks of Lumbago are not nearly so hopeless as they seem. You can relieve them almost instantly by a simple application of Sloan's Liniment on the back and loins. Lumbago is a form of rheumatism, which penetrates quickly all in through the sore, tender muscles, limbers up the back and makes it feel fine. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for 25 cents of any drug-gist and have it in the house—against colds, sore and swollen joints, rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and like ailments. Your money back if not satisfied, but it does give almost instant relief.

On account of the prevalence during the past month of several cases of diphtheria, whooping cough and sore eyes, in the mill village, the enrollment for September was not quite so good as usual for the first month, but the average attendance has been the best in the history of the school. New pupils are now coming in each week. We are making splendid progress at this time, and indications are that this will be our best year. This year we have added a manual training and a sewing class to our work. The pupils are intensely interested in the work, and are making highly creditable progress. We request that the patrons of the mill school visit us from time to time at their convenience for the purpose of becoming better acquainted with us and with the character of our work. J. K. CONNORS, Principal Mill School.
